Kukrit

I work in the centre of Bangkok, at Hualamphong railway station. My job is to advise tourists about accommodation, transport, and sightseeing. It takes a lot of energy - you need to be patient and friendly. I really like helping people to have a nice time in my city, but it's very tiring.

Monika

I work six days a week, including evenings. In this job you need to be well organized and efficient. I plan the menus with the chef, handle the day-to-day running of the business, do the accounts, and manage a team of ten. The only part of the job I don't like is dealing with customers' complaints.

Ramón

What I like about my job is that every day is different. I'm part of a team and we all get on well. I have to check guests in and out of the hotel, take reservations, and sort out problems. I enjoy dealing with people - except the ones who are rude. For a job like this, you need to be a sociable person and to be diplomatic.

Alex

When I'm on a tour, I'm my own boss, and I really enjoy that. You need to be calm and resourceful for this job. Basically, I'm responsible for making sure that the tour goes smoothly and that people enjoy their holiday. I check the transport arrangements, organize the accommodation, tell people what's happening each day, and deal with any problems. The only negative thing is that it's a big responsibility.
